

GED, High School Diploma, Basic Skills

Are you interested in a profession which offers challenges and satisfaction? A profession that is always progressing with new concepts, techniques and solutions? A creative profession? Working with diverse people? A career with many opportunities, excellent salary and benefits? If the answer is yes, you might be interested in the Nursing program at Pasadena City College. Whether you are looking for the fastest way to entering the workplace or looking to go to graduate school, PCC gives you the roadmap to success.

For more information, visit to www.pccstem.org

Nursing Career Roadmap

